REMARKS

50X1-HUM

1. An AAA firing exercise with nine 35-mm AA guns and about eight to ten 37-mm AA guns was held from 8:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. on 1 July 1950. The sleeve target was towed at an altitude of about 2,500 meters. Light or nine heavy shell bursts were seen, the light guns following somewhat later.
2. About 100 trucks, about 50 of which were pulling guns, were at the parking lot on 3 July 1950. Light heavy and twelve light guns were emplaced. A mobile radio station and a stationary radio station with two trellis masts, each about 20 meters high, were seen. There was AAA practice firing from 10 to 11:30 a.m. A twin-engine fighter landed during a period when firing was suspended. AAA firing as described above is held almost daily. 50X1-HUM
3. Units with trucks pulling AAA guns left during the night of 4 July 1950, heading in the direction of "eubuckow and Broepelin."
4. Thirty-five trucks pulling twenty-two 37-mm AA guns were loaded on a train early in the morning of 4 July 1950. Trucks were seen. The train headed in the direction of Wismar. Lightteen trucks loaded with furniture left Rehrick. Trucks 50X1-HUM were seen. Passenger car 50X1-HUM occupied by a colonel and a major, was seen entering the peninsula.
5. Passenger car occupied by a general and a junior officer, and passenger car, occupied by a field officer, came from the direction of Heubuckow on 6 July 1950. 50X1-HUM
6. New units with trucks pulling AA guns arrived during the night
